

Chuck LaChiusa Honored

Charles A. LaChiusa has received the 2010 Augspurger Award, presented to him by the Buffalo & Erie County Historical Society on November 18th at BECHS' prestigious Red Jacket Awards Dinner. This award is presented "to an individual for outstanding service to the cause of local history."

Chuck, a retired teacher, a trustee for Preservation Buffalo Niagara, and a Buffalo Tours docent, was recognized for his web site, Buffalo Architecture and History (<http://buffaloah.com/>) that since 1997 has grown to over 400 featured buildings with his photographs and histories. The site also includes an illustrated architectural dictionary, a unique page of links focusing on the history of Buffalo, and much more. Buffalonians and persons around the world are familiar with this site that attracts an estimated hundreds of thousands of visitors per year.
